Rebecca Maxwell

to speak on

The Multiple Aspects of Rudolf Steiner's Anthroposophy

Rebecca is a Poet, Writer and a Rudolf Steiner Teacher. She has written and published two books, 'Blind and Busy: Life Stories of People who Use Braille' and 'With Other Senses'. She has been a student of Anthroposophy for more than 30 years.

Rudolf Steiner was an Austrian Mystic, Philosopher, Social Reformer, Architect and Esotericist. Steiner gained initial recognition at the end of the nineteenth century as a literary critic and published philosophical works including 'The Philosophy of Freedom'. At the beginning of the 20th century, he founded an esoteric movement, anthroposophy. In the third phase of his work, beginning after World War 1, Steiner worked to establish various practical endeavours, including Waldorf education, biodynamic agriculture, and anthroposophical medicine. Rebecca believes that in studying any aspect of the human being and human life as taught by Rudolf Steiner, we are not imbibing material, rather we are on a self development track through the particular realm of our choice.

The Evenings' Presentation will Focus on;

- Elements of the Real Human Being.
- Developments of Different Aspects of the Person.
 - Steiner Education.
 - Evolution.
 - Spirituality.
 - Serving Nature.
