Astrology ~ An Introduction to a Vastly Complex Field

Margaret has been in private practice as an Astrologer and Naturopath as well as specialising in Homeopathy since 1978. She is in the process of publishing her book Astrohom: The Subtle Link between Astrology and Homeopathy which she has been researching since 1983. She also holds a Master of Gestalt Therapy based on the concept of holism in psychotherapy. Margaret is an experienced lecturer having taught for many years at the Southern School of Natural Therapies and presented at numerous professional and public gatherings. Margaret and her husband, Kerrin Cassidy, ran a school for the training of professional Astrologers for a number of years.

Hippocrates is said to have noted that to be a Practitioner of the healing arts requires a knowledge of Astrology. The natal astrological chart can be seen as the blueprint for the soul's journey through life. The study of Astrology involves the zodiac signs; the planetary positions; the energetic interactions observed through the mathematics of the chart; and the study of the position of these planets from an 'Earthly' perspective which gives us the houses of the chart.

The Evenings' Presentation will Focus on;

- Orientation to the Natal Chart.
- The Meaning of the Planets.
- The Meaning of the Houses.
- The Mathematical Interactions and their Meaning.
  - Sample Charts.
- A Brief Sample Reading from the Audience with Permission of the Subject ~ (Recorded Birth Time is Required).
